On a break from his studies, Kit Walker explores the Ghost Jungle, deep beneath the city of Metropia, never imagining the secret he's about to uncover!

When I get back to the lair, I'll show this totem to Guràn. Hopefully, he will have some idea of what it means...!

Guràn inspects the artifact that Kit has brought to him.
Located in the now abandoned Tube Train Station, within the “dead” Sector Zero. Here you’ll consult the Map and the Database to plan your next move. Confer with Guran, and receive holographic messages. The Lair is also the main entrance to the Ghost Jungle.

The totem symbolizes a grave threat to all mankind - politics and greed that will lead to the destruction of Earth’s ecosystem. Something that you, Kit, as the 24th Phantom are destined to protect against.
The Map of Metropia is located in the Communications Center of the Lair.

To open the Map in The Lair:
Use the Control Pad to move in front of the left side of Phantom's computer, then press Up.

The Map displays the various places in Metropia. The skull shows the exit from each place back to the Map. Places change throughout the game, so you may want to enter a sector more than once.

To enter a sector of Metropia:
1. Use the Control Pad to move the Skull over the Map. Accessible sites are highlighted when the Skull is over them.
2. Click the Start button when the Skull is over the highlighted sector of the site you want to enter.
